

Member Message

November 2020

THANK YOU

Our IAFP members have faced the COVID pandemic head-on since the start and sacrificed so much across the board. Now we are bracing for a difficult fall/winter. Your stories are important to share as a living history of these unprecedented times.

Please share with me how you have overcome the challenges of 2020 or what you're thankful for amidst the turmoil?

Contact me president@iafp.com

Bookmark your Academy and read all about us!

- Family Physician Magazine
- CME Connections
- IAFP blog

I hope this new Member Message will provide an additional contact point that encourages engagement with IAFP leadership and each other.

Michael Hanak, MD, FAAFP

Meet your new Board

Missed the Annual Meeting? Link to the video of the awards ceremony and board installation. Take a fun look at our Teacher of the Year Dr. Carl Lambert & Family Physician of the Year Dr. Alyssa Jeanne Vest Hart

Get Involved! Join us in a Member Interest Group (MIG) or Committee. And invite your colleagues to become members!

FPs are All-Stars! Please elevate a colleague or FP friend who has stepped up to help their community, patient, or health system address an inequity or improve a social determinant of health. IAFP would like to share those stories in 2021. Email me by Dec. 31st.