Meet the PIN Network Project Manager

IAFP welcomes Helen Kate Liebelt, our Practice Improvement Network Project Manager. Helen Kate will work with IAFP to implement the small practice pilot project. Helen Kate will serve as a resource and liaison for practices, ambassadors, the Practice Transformation Committee and the Executive committee while executing planning, educational, communication, and technical components of this initiative.

Helen Kate is the President of the Chicago Health Executives Forum, an independent chapter of the American College of Health Executives. Kate has held operations and management positions at major health care companies including Baxter Healthcare Corp., TAP Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and Takeda Global Research & Development, Inc. as well as consulting firms including PricewaterhouseCoopers. Helen Kate earned a BA in Economics at Washington University in Saint Louis.
