

ILLINOIS CHAPTER OF FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENTS
(Resident Chapter of the IAFP)

OFFICER POSITIONS

Are you interested in becoming a volunteer leader in the Illinois Chapter of Family Medicine Residents? Would you like to represent the family medicine residents of Illinois and have your voice heard regarding the future of Family Medicine?

Here's your chance to take on this leadership role and assume an officer position with the Illinois Chapter of Family Medicine Residents. Or, if you know of someone at your residency program that might be interested in an officer position, please share this information with them.

President-elect: Two- Year Commitment: Assists the president in organizing resident activities and addresses resident priorities through various communications. Represents residents on the Foundation board of directors. President-elect will serve as President for the subsequent term (July 2010 to June 2011).

Requirements: attend all IAFP Foundation BOD meetings (usually conducted via conference call). Attend the 2009 Family Medicine Forum (Fall 2009). Can be called upon to represent Illinois residents at various opportunities.

Nat'l Delegate: One resident will be Illinois' delegate to the AAFP's National Congress of Resident Members July 30 – August 1, 2009 in Kansas City. The selected resident will represent our state; attend the business sessions at the National Conference and network with other residents attending the Conference from Illinois. A written report will be required to IAFP upon your return. Airfare/mileage and hotel will be reimbursed.
